ON AND ON IT GOES, GETTING WORSE AND WORSE

Our farm problem, despite the wistful attitude in Congress, won't up and go away, notes an editorial in The Fort Worth Press. It hangs on and on, getting more explosive.

President Eisenhower and Agriculture Secretary Benson announce one more try to get Congress to legislate a small measure of common sense into this situation. The modest program they offer is no solution—it is merely a plan to slow down the mounting surpluses. But it would get the government headed in the right direction.

At last report, the government had nearly $9,000,000,000 tied up in wheat, corn, cotton and other surpluses. Before spring, it is predicted, this figure will reach $10,000,000,000, a record high.

The program, in 27 years, has cost the taxpayers $16,000,000,000 in actual losses.

With all this outlay, the farmer should be in clover. He isn't. The surpluses just get bigger. Farm prices have fallen 13 per cent since the 1947-49 average. Non-farm prices have climbed 28 per cent.

The so-called "farm program" hasn't worked. The bulk of the subsidies go to the biggest wheat, corn and cotton farmers—not to the farmers who are hardest up. To show how lopsided the program is, the wheat subsidy costs the taxpayers 30 per cent of the whole farm program. Yet wheat accounts for only six per cent of the total farm income. And the wheat problem is the worst of all.

These simple facts ought to be enough to convince even the most stubborn advocate that the present farm program is a flop. If Congress is not soon convinced, at least to the point of revising the complex 1913 parity for wheat, Benson's forecast will be inevitable.

He predicted that unless the artificial supports for wheat are relaxed, the whole farm program will fall of its own weight.

Postmaster Sparks Urges Cooperation In Expediting Mailing for Christmas

Zone numbers also should be used on Christmas cards and other mail to cities with postal zones.

The address should be on the top of the package and it should be carefully written or lettered. A piece of transparent cellophane tape placed over the address will usually prevent defacing in transit. It is also a good idea," declared Sparks, "to include the address inside the package in case the outside address should become defaced.

"If you use Christmas stickers or seals, place them where they will not conflict with the address. Then, before you drop the package in the mail, be sure you have firmly affixed the proper postage."

The postmaster reminded that the entire Christmas mailing period is primarily a battle against time. A delay now will contribute to a serious pile-up, particularly in the larger post offices, as the holiday approaches.

All packages going to distant cities should be in the post office by December 10. Other mail should be sent on its way as soon as possible, and all local mail should be in the post office no more than a week or 10 days later. This kind of cooperation would mean that all Christmas mail would be delivered on or before Christmas Eve, the postmaster explained.

BINNICKERS VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Binnicker and Jan visited relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Winslett and family at Grapevine Saturday night, and all went to Arlington Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binnicker.

Pearl Fannin, 69, Pioneer Railroad Employee, Passes

Another long time resident of the Hamlin community, Pearl Fannin, 63-year-old railway worker, died early Saturday morning in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient for two months.

Fannin, a resident of Hamlin since 1905, had been an employee of the Santa Fe Railway Company for 43 years.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:00 p. m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church, with the interim pastor, Rev. Byron Bryant, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. T. M. Harrell, pastor of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church, of which Fannin was a member.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Tom J. Davis, L. O. Hughes, A. J. Reed, J. W. Patterson, J. D. Rountree and J. K. Jones.

Fannin was born November 22, 1896, in Oklahoma and married the former Myrtle Cash of Merkle on December 30, 1915.

Survivors include his wife; his step-mother, Mrs. Ellen Fannin of Brownwood; one daughter, Mrs. Francis Wilkins of Abilene; a brother, W. D. Fannin of Richmond, California; a step-brother, Marvin Roberts of Brownwood; three sisters, Mrs. Jess Miller of Hamlin, Mrs. Gladys Nunley of Saint Jo and Mrs. Lennie Cochran of California; and a step-sister, Mrs. Myrtle Squire of Idaho.

Two from Hamlin Members of H-SU Cowboy Band Unit

Two Hamlin students, Bryan Shelburne and Gene Steele, are members of Hardin-Simmons University's famed Cowboy Band.

Shelburne, a freshman, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shelburne of Route 3, Hamlin. He plans to major in music education at Hardin-Simmons and will be a candidate for the bachelor of music degree.

The Cowboy Band, organized in 1923, has become the most colorful university band in the world during its varied history.

The band has played in more than 40 states and in a score of foreign lands. Overseas tours have taken the group through most of Europe and into Latin America. The musicians have traveled approximately 1,000,000 miles to fill engagements throughout the United States, in England, France, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Iceland, Scotland, Bermuda, Canada, the Azores, Mexico and Italy.

Cowboy musicians have played for two presidential inaugurations, for Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1937 and Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1953. It has been the official band for several Lions International conventions, and has played from coast to coast for numerous other gatherings.

Director of the famed band is Marion B. McClure, who joined it as a student in 1929 and became its director in 1934. He has been with the band continuously except for four years in the armed forces during World War II. He holds the bachelor of music degree from Hardin-Simmons University and the master of music from the VanderCook School of Music of Chicago.

Stamford Insurance Man, L. B. McNeil, Is Assessor Candidate

A Stamford insurance man became the first candidate to formally announce with The Herald his candidacy for election to county office.

L. B. McNeil will be a candidate for tax assessor-collector to succeed Ima B. Dougherty, who had announced several days ago that she would retire at the end of her current term.

Dave Reeves and two county commissioners have indicated they will seek reelection, but neither of these has made formal announcement with The Herald.

McNeil, 49, has been in the insurance business for a number of years, the last 14½ years in Jones County. He said he had been dealing with the public for a quarter century.

Marrried, he has a son, Larry, who is a junior at North Texas State College at Denton.

Formal announcement will be made at a later date McNeil said.

Information Given on City and State with Seventh Grade Letter

Students of Class 7-C in social studies and Hamlin Junior High School have had an interesting experience by answering a letter from a seventh grader from Greensboro, Georgia, about their town and state.

I selected the most interesting letter written by Hamlin's 7-C Johnny Overman was the winner. In his letter he says: "Hamlin's population was 3,564 in 1950, but I think it is 4,000 now. There is a Celotex gypsum plant just outside of town, which makes sheet-rock."

Stanley Smith in another interesting letter states: "The four natural divisions of Texas are the Gulf Coast Plain, the Interior Plain, the Great Plains and the Rocky Mountain Highland."

The items brought by the students to mail to Georgia were pictures, hard water, types of soil, a mesquite limb with a bean on it, a horned toad, gypsum, sheetrock and gypsum rock.

"We feel that each person became more interested in his home town and its natural resources," declares the class reporter, "and that we will help others know that our state tree is the pecan, the state flower is the bluebonnet, the state bird is the mockingbird, and our state song is 'Texas, Our Texas.' It was fun to tell the kids in Georgia about the very best town in the wonderful state of Texas."

Estimated One from County Included in Draft for December

Only one draftee from Jones County will be included in the December call, according to estimates.

The state draft quota for Texas draft boards in December calls for 454 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, announced Friday.

The state's December draft call of 454 compares with a quota of 447 for November, and is the state's share of a national quota of 9,000 men, all for the Army.

Colonel Schwartz also stated that the local boards would send around 2,300 men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. These men will return home after being examined at examining stations.

Local board quotas for the December call already have been figured and were sent to the state's 137 local boards Monday, including the three-county board at Anson, serving Jones, Haskell and Shackelford Counties.

The December quota will be filled with men who are at least 22 years old on December 1, with the exception of volunteers or delinquents, who may be younger.

Christmas Card Sales Promoted by Seniors

Boxes of plain Christmas cards are being sold by members of the senior class of Hamlin High School as another project in the fund raising for the annual senior trip. The boxes sell for $1 and $1.25.

The senior operated concession stand will be open at the basketball tournament this weekend at the HHS gymnasium. Senior students will be responsible for bringing up cakes, sandwiches and for working in the stand.

POLITICAL POLICY. "Some of your constituents are disagreeing with you," said the congressman's secretary to her boss.

"So I understand," acknowledged the legislator. "And when enough of them disagree with me to constitute a majority, I'm going to turn around and agree with them."

James W. Smith, Pioneer of Area, Passes Wednesday

James William Smith, 90, Moran resident for nearly 67 years, died at 6:25 p.m. Wednesday in Hamlin at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Anna Gage.

The pioneer had been in ill health the past seven weeks and had lived with his daughter during that time.

Born April 27, 1869, in Bagdad, Texas, he moved to Moran in 1892. He married Zola Blackstock there in 1903. She preceded him in death in 1933.

As cotton harvesting in the Hamlin area reaches the "wind up" stage, the general wage scale for cotton pulling continues at $1.75 per 100 pounds, according to a report this week from Ed McDonald, regional director of the Texas Employment Commission.

The wage scale report is given following a survey in the territory by representatives of the TEC.

We all have troubles and never get rid of them by telling them to others.

Women's Rights in Texas Topic for Club Program Tuesday

Seven members were present when the Girls' Night Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, November 24, for the last meeting of the year at the club house.

Lucky winner of the drawing was Mrs. Inez McCoy.

Council report was given by the council delegate, and all business was completed for the year.

Mrs. Mildred Weaver, home economics leader, was unable to attend the training meeting on "Transfer of Property," having been ill at the time, so she gave a good program on "Legal Discriminations Against Married Women in Texas."

When she concluded, all agreed that the laws regarding married women are very antiquated, and home demonstration women should sponsor a bill to change them, as they are responsible for the enriched corn meal and grits law getting passed. These laws are over 100 years old, and were copied from the Mexican government, and we all know that at that time in history women had very few legal rights.

Cookies and coffee were served by the hostesses Mrs. Adele Kelly and Mrs. Arlene Faulkenberry. Those present were Mmes. Inez McCoy, Charlene Joiner, Viva Joiner, Mildred Weaver, Becky Brown and the hostesses.

Jimmy M. Darden, formerly of Hamlin, To Wed in Wyoming

December 20 has been selected as their wedding date by Marylyn Barricklow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brees of Pine Bluff, Wyoming, and Jimmy M. Darden, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Darden of Texas.

The wedding will be solemnized at the First Covenant Baptist Church in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Miss Barricklow is attending West Texas State College at Canyon, where she is majoring in business education. She is a member of Chi Omega, Pi Omega Phi Gamma Nu and T-Anchor Clubs.

Darden is a senior at West Texas State College and is majoring in commercial art. He is a member of T-Anchor Rodeo Club.

He was born in Hamlin and lived in McCullough until 1950. He attended Cisco Junior College for two years and the past two years has been a student at WTSC.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the hostess, Mrs. Sol Brancum, to the following: Mmes. Jack Collins, Fred Carpenter, Richard Young, Carl Young, and E. G. Young and Emma Ray Nall.

Interesting Programs Enjoyed by Woman's Literary Club Group

Members of the Woman's Literary Club have enjoyed two unusually good programs recently. On November 6 the topic was "A Look at Today's World Through Good Books." Mrs. R. D. Moore was hostess and Mrs. A. B. Carlton was director. Mrs. Alice Cassie reviewed "The Dress Doctor" by Edith Head.

On November 20 the topic was "A Look at the American Home."

Mrs. Mildred Weaver, home economics leader, was unable to attend the training meeting on "Transfer of Property," having been ill at the time, so she gave a good program on "Legal Discriminations Against Married Women in Texas."

In closing, each member told in one sentence what she was most thankful for, and each made a contribution to CARE.

Ruth Sunday School Class in Social Meet

Members of the Ruth Sunday School Class of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church held their month's business and social class meeting Tuesday, November 24, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Stewart.

Mrs. O. W. Clark led the group in prayer. The meeting was called to order by the president. Minutes were read by the secretary, and Mrs. D. A. Mullings read the treasurer's report.

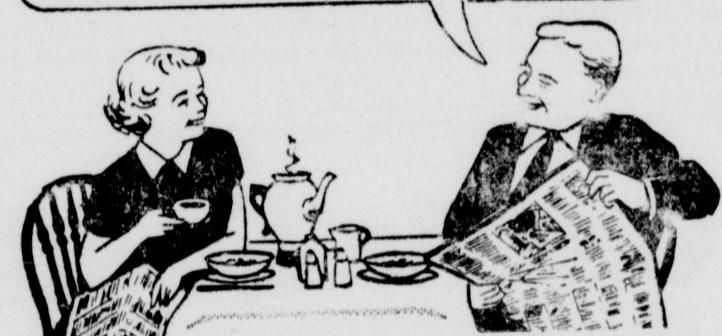

It was decided to have a Christmas party for the class on December 15 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Wallace. Mrs. A. G. Anderson was director. The Lord's Prayer was given in unison. Mrs. Bill Shira presented a talk on "Mother, Honest." Mrs. Edmund Robb gave a talk on "Every Home a Basic Training Center for Good Citizenship," and Mrs. L. W. Shivers spoke on "Youth Fitness, Family First."

In closing, each member told in one sentence what she was most thankful for, and each made a contribution to CARE.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin.—Ordinarily, between Thanksgiving and Christmas politicking takes a back seat to holiday preparations in the capitol.

This year a lot of people are more concerned with what sort of "gifts" they'll get in January.

Governor Price Daniel has called special elections to fill the three legislative vacancies for January 9. For the several candidates already actively running for these offices, election would be a highly acceptable post-season "present."

Governor Daniel also has written members of the Legislature asking for a special session early next year to raise money for higher teachers' salaries.

Some already have stated, bluntly and publicly, that this is a "gift" they could pass up. It would force them to choose, right before running for reelection, between disappointing the teachers and passing a new tax, which always makes somebody unhappy.

Several have said that they feel the matter of teacher raises either should have been settled during the sessions last spring and summer or should be postponed until the next regular session. After state-wide elections, it's pointed out, legislators might have a clearer idea of what all the people want.

Other lawmakers, however, say they feel teachers should have an immediate raise.

Talk now is that, if the special session is called, it will be about January 12, just after the special elections.

For state officials in general, holiday dreams are focused, not on December 25, but February 1, the last day to file for a place on the primary ballot. For the candidates, no "visions of sugar plums" can compare with the hope of having February 1 end with no tough opposition in sight.

Water Engineer Resigns.—McDonald D. Weinert has resigned his post as chief state water engineer effective January 12.

Weinert said he was not leaving because of being "under fire by anyone" and that he did not have another position at the time.

Weinert is a retired Army Engineers Corps colonel. He was hired in April, 1958, to head the water board's planning section. Legislature authorized the planning section to study all the state's surface and underground water resources and make a state-wide report to the Legislature.

Water board has been the target of critical statements in recent months by the Texas Water Conservation Association and the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. TWCA charged that friction between board members is getting some place.

"And how, dear, are you getting along with the boss? Are you going to get that raise?"

"Things are looking up," explained the husband in answer to his wife's question. "I'm getting some encouragement now."

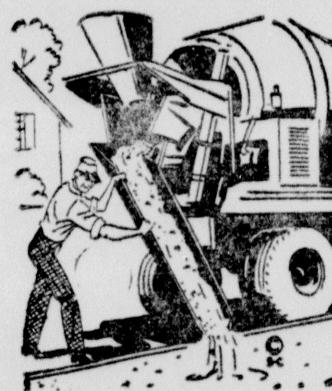

"You mean that the boss is about ready to give you that raise?"

"I think so," said he. "This morning the boss told me that he had said 'No' for the last time."

Commission Studies Gas Prices.—Texas Railroad Commission is now considering the record of nearly a year's heated discussion over whether Lone Star Gas Company should be allowed to raise its rates.

More than 300 Texas cities are seeking permits to build two dams near Houston. San Jacinto River Authority is contesting the application. It contends Houston has an agreement to get its water from the San Jacinto and that Trinity water is insufficient and polluted.

Engineers of the Houston-Trinity group have presented mountains of statistics in support of the case that Trinity water will be adequate for industrial use and cheaper than San Jacinto water.

City of Denton has dropped its opposition to the proposed dams after coming to an agreement with TRA and Houston to protect water rights of the Garza-Little Elm and Grapevine reservoirs.

Orville D. Roland, BCD Manager, Given Institute Certificate

Orville D. Roland, manager of the Hamlin Board of Community Development, has been awarded the certificate of graduation for the basic course at the institute for organization management at the University of Colorado.

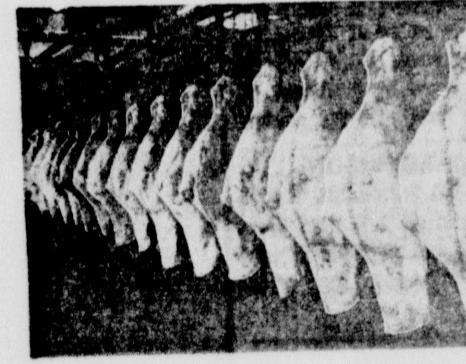

The institute is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The course is a concentrated training program in the management of associations and Chambers of Commerce. The program is aimed to equip the executive with the basic skills, techniques and methods of management work; and also to lead him to a better understanding of himself, his organization, and the social economy of which he is a part. Throughout the course there is constant emphasis upon continued personal development.

The institute training program was organized by the chamber in 1921 as a means of assisting the executives of associations and Chambers of Commerce to better equip themselves for the responsibilities of their jobs.

Duffy Well Shows Oil in Drillstem Tests to Northeast

Hagler Prepares To Retrun from Antarctic Mission

Program for Lions Presented Tuesday By ACC Quartet

Good showings were reported in one test, and another was plugged as highlights on the oil activity front in the Hamlin area of the past several days.

Oil was recovered on two drillstem tests taken in the Tannehill Sand at a South Stonewall County project, seven miles northeast of Hamlin. The venture is B. A. Duffy of Abilene No. 1 Scott, in Section 151, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

First drillstem test was taken at 2,628-39 feet with the tool open 75 minutes. Recovery was 2,279 feet of gas, 40 feet of free oil, 180 feet of mud-cut oil, and 50 feet of oil and gas-cut water. Flowing pressure was from zero to 90 pounds. Initial shut-in pressure in 15 minutes was 640 pounds, and final in 20 minutes 630 pounds.

Another test was run at 2,639-43% feet. With the tool open two hours and 15 minutes, gas surfaced in 13 minutes. Recovery was 160 feet of free oil, 200 feet of mud-cut oil, and 60 feet of oil and gas-cut water. Flowing pressure was zero to 430 pounds; and initial shut-in pressure in 20 minutes 675 pounds.

No. 1 Scott was drilling below 2,666 feet Monday. It is a northeast offset to M. J. Mitchell No. 3 L. D. Lewis, discovery for the Flat Top South (Swastika) Field.

Jack C. Staley et al of Wichita Falls No. 1 C. S. Robinson, located in Section 152, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey, wildcat in the same area, was plugged at 2,700 feet.

First Lieutenant James E. Hagler, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hagler of Route 3, Hamlin, is preparing to return to Donaldson Air Force Base, South Carolina, from duty on Operation Deepfreeze V. He has been serving with Military Air Transport Service's Ninth Troop Carrier Squadron while it was engaged in the resupply of the American stations in the Antarctic.

The 10 C-124 Globemasters and the men of the Ninth Troop Carrier Squadron have returned to their New Zealand operating base at Christchurch, where they will begin preparation to fly back to South Carolina.

While in the Antarctic on Operation Deepfreeze V, plans of the Air Force task unit dropped more than 1,500 tons of supplies, equipment and scientific instruments to scientists engaged in studies in the South Polar regions. The air drops were divided between the U. S. scientific station in Marie Byrd Land and the South Pole Station.

The supplies dropped by this MATS unit will enable the scientists and military personnel at these remote Antarctic sites to work and survive during the coming southern hemisphere winter when the temperatures often dive beneath the 100 degrees below zero mark.

The Ninth Troop Carrier Squadron is a member of the 63rd Troop Carrier Wing, which is based at Donaldson Air Force Base, South Carolina. Since the initial resupply of the Antarctic stations by air during Operation Deepfreeze II in 1956, it has been called upon to air drop the tons of precious cargo necessary to sustain the United States' scientific effort in the South Polar region.

George Campbell, vice president of the club, presided in the absence of Donley Williams, president.

Special musical program rendered by a men's quartet group from the a Cappella Chorus of Abilene Christian College provided the program feature at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

The quartet was presented by Rodney Spaulding, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spaulding of Hamlin, who is a junior student at ACC and a member also of the chorus and other musical groups at the school. He declared that ACC had often been referred to as the "singing college," and that the students are proud of this reputation.

The quartet, composed of Richard Ingermill of Santa Ana, California, Don Danner of Portland, Oregon, Douglas Smith of Odessa and Martie Hooper of Bakersfield, California, sang "Stormy Weather," "Rock-a-Bye," "Jingle Bells" and "My Bonnie."

For the past several years they have worked with Internal Revenue Service on a number of schools for county agents. They set up a one-day school for the county agents and invite other farm leaders in the area. The school is taught jointly by an Internal Revenue Service man and an Extension Service man. The county agents who go to the school help farmers in their area with their tax problems.

The county agents deserve a pat on the head for helping farmers with one of their toughest problems—taxes. The Texas Extension Service especially deserves Texas farmers' thanks for saving farmers money and trouble through better education. If you follow their advice and keep good farm records, you may save money on your taxes as well as run your farm better.

The Celotex Corporation has a big gypsum plant at Hamlin.

About the only persons who approach a school zone slowly are the students.

IN THE CLASSROOM.

The teen-ager had been hoping that one day the handsome fellow who sat behind her in class would take notice of her. And then one day she turned and saw that he was actually smiling at her! So she smiled back at him. And he didn't turn away, but just looked at her more intently than before.

"Smile like that again," he commanded.

She blushed and dimpled. He laughed.

"Just as I thought," he said.

"You sure do look like a chipmunk."

HAD IT COMING.

Upon receiving the bill for the extraction of a tooth, Pete phoned his dentist and complained, "Why, that's three times what you usually charge!"

"Yes, I know," replied the dentist, "but you yelled so loud you scared away two other patients."

Mrs. J. B. Martin Given Citation by Church

Mrs. J. B. Martin, who is a member of the Church of the Nazarene in Hamlin, was awarded a plaque honoring her as the Layman of the Year, according to R. T. Jarrell, pastor of the church. Her award came about by voting of the congregation by various members whom they felt were outstanding members of the local church.

Chili Supper Slated For Camp Fire Girls Leaders This Evening

A chili supper for leaders of the Camp Fire Girls movement in the Hamlin community and their families has been set for this (Thursday) evening at 7:00 o'clock at the high school cafeteria.

The supper was planned last Tuesday evening when directors of the Hamlin Camp Fire Girls met at the Blue Bird Inn, according to Westley Nail, president.

The supper is for council members, who include leaders, assistant leaders, sponsors, board members and their wives or husbands.

New officers will be installed at the supper meeting, when the year's work and activities will be reviewed. Other plans made at the Tuesday night meeting were pertaining to landscaping the local Camp Fire hut grounds, and to hear reports on the annual candy sale scheduled for February.

Bill Harbert, chairman of the Camp Fire Girls fund drive, reported that $284 had been received in contributions.

Layne B. Blankinship Finishes Navy Basic

Layne B. Blankinship, apprentice petty officer first class of the U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman C. Blankinship of Southwest Avenue H, Hamlin, is scheduled to graduate Friday, December 4, from recruit training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego, California, according to release from the base to The Herald.

Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist company commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

God knows that politics are intricate and that the b in and heart of man are small organs often pulsating as wildly as the wings of a linnet in a snare. But if we do not become more enraged by great wrongs, we shall never have the spirit to achieve great rights.—Harold Nicholson.

The new dealer says this training will help him meet the constant challenge to all business men to keep abreast of the rapid changes in requirements of customer services to assure their confidence and continued patronage.

I have never thought much of the courage of a lion-tamer; inside the cage he is, at least, safe from other men.—George Bernard Shaw.

I. E. Smith Jr. Named Mobil Dealer at New Service Station in City

I. E. Smith Jr., Mobil dealer at Aspermont for several years, has been named dealer at the recently rebuilt Mobil Service Station on South Central Avenue in Hamlin, across the street from H. & M. Tire and Appliance Store. He opened the place Monday.

Smith recently has completed special training in the latest methods of service station operation. For two weeks, November 9 through November 20, specialists at Mobil Oil Company's sales development center discussed with Smith and other dealers ways to offer better service for the American motorist.

The new dealer says this training will help him meet the constant challenge to all business men to keep abreast of the rapid changes in requirements of customer services to assure their confidence and continued patronage.

There is no expedient to which a man will not resort in order to avoid the real labor of thinking.—Sir Joshua Reynolds.

"A good prophet," proclaimed Mister Dooley, "is a man who foresees trouble. He can peer into the most blinding sunshine and see the darkness lurking behind it."
